

HILLSBOROUGH
California

CITY COUNCIL MEETING RECAP

DECEMBER 2018

CITY COUNCIL REORGANIZATION

On Monday, December 10th, the City Council elected Shawn Christianson as Mayor and Alvin Royse as Vice Mayor, and Marie Chuang and Laurence May were sworn in to serve another four-year term. The Honorable Kathleen Kelly, Judge of the San Francisco Superior Court, sitting by assignment as a Justice Pro Tem on the California Court of Appeal, 1st District administered the oaths:

Councilmember Marie Chuang takes her oath of office to serve another term.

Councilmember Laurence (Larry) May takes his oath of office to serve another term.

Councilmember Shawn Christianson takes her oath of office as Hillsborough's Mayor for 2019.

Councilmember Alvin (Al) Royse takes his oath of office as Hillsborough's Vice Mayor for 2019.

CERTIFICATES OF APPRECIATION - TOWN COMMITTEE MEMBER RETIREMENTS

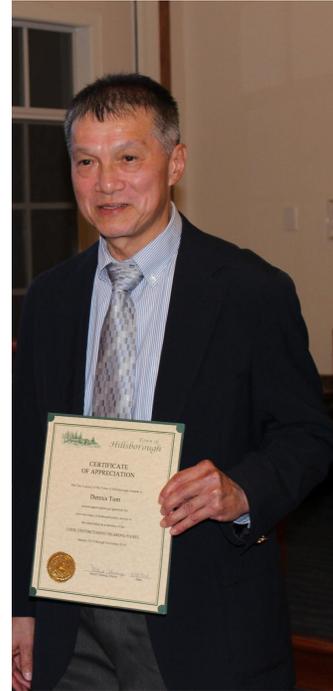

The City Council presented Certificates of Appreciation to three Town residents who were retiring from their positions on committees and panels:

Josh Cooperman served on the Financial Advisory Committee (FAC) for 19 years. Previously, he was also an adviser to the Hillsborough City School Board.

Maryellie Johnson served on the FAC for 8 years, her second term on the committee. She is still very active with the Hillsborough Beautification Foundation and the Wireless Communications Advisory Committee.

Dennis Tom, MD, served on the Code Enforcement Hearing Panel for over 2 years. He is currently active in the Hillsborough Neighborhood Network.

● ● ●

POLICE CHIEF ANNOUNCEMENTS

The City Council formally announced that Police Chief Mark O'Connor (left) was retiring at the end of 2018 and that Captain Doug Davis (right) had been selected as the next Police Chief. A recognition for Chief O'Connor's service to the Town will be held at a future City Council meeting.

