TUESDAY TOWN INFORMATION

Visit San Mateo County's website at www.smcgov.org for the latest information on COVID-19 and the Shelter in Place Order

Isolation and quarantine order for people with COVID-19 and their close contacts

Click here to read the official press release.

San Mateo County Health Officer Dr. Scott Morrow has issued new orders requiring persons who have tested positive for COVID-19 to isolate themselves and for the close contacts of persons who have tested positive to remain in quarantine for 14 days.

According to the orders, "isolation" is the separation of persons who have been infected with COVID-19 from other persons. "Quarantine" separates and restricts the movement of persons who, while not yet infected with COVID-19, have been exposed to COVID-19 and therefore may become infectious. The quarantine order applies to the close contacts of persons who have tested positive and are in isolation.

The full orders are available to view here: Isolation Order | Quarantine Order

Resources for San Mateo County residents

San Mateo County has created a catch-all resource website for residents. The page has information on topics such as childcare, unemployment benefits, volunteering, donations, and more:
